

LIBBY ANDREW

Author, speaker, parent, ex police officer (10 yrs NT Police) women's rugby union player

CONTACT

📞 61 451236814

✉ libby.andrew@gmail.com

🌐 libbyandrew.com.au

ABOUT LIBBY

Now aged 53 yrs and still walking! Parenting four young sons (full time)! Still loving rugby and fitness training. Heading to Vancouver, Canada 2027, to participate in the Golden Oldies Womens Rugby Union Tournament, (Australian Wobblyroos)!

ABOUT WALLAROO 19

Celebrating Womens Rugby in Australia

Libby's 3rd self published book is called Wallaroo 19: Celebrating Women's Rugby in Australia. It provides a personal history and the journey of the national team from the early 1990's to the first international test against the NZ women in Sydney (1994) and Australias first appearance at the World Cup (1998) in Amsterdam. The book was launched in Canberra 2024.

SPEAKING TOPICS

SPORT: Women's Rugby (League & Union): elite sport in the old days, training, working and playing. Preparing for international comp and world cup.

The challenges of parenting : including her journey with a son born with a congenital heart defect. Other topics:, Dealing with Fear, Shame, Abandonment, trauma.

OTHER BOOKS

A Mothers Guide

To Navigating Fontan Surgery. This book is a practical guidebook for parents dealing with congenital heart disease, specifically for a baby requiring Fontan Surgery. Published 2018

Jay's Story

Is a book written for children. It was distributed to every remote school in the NT and every remote police station in an attempt to teach youth about the law.